REAL ID ACT

Pennsylvania is one of several states that are currently not complying with the Federal REAL ID Act of 2005. This Act was passed in 2005 as a security measure after the September 11th attacks. This law established minimum security standards for state-issued driver's licenses and identification cards and prohibits federal agencies from accepting for official purposes licenses and identification cards from states that do not meet the standards. Pennsylvania has until June 6, 2017 to comply. If the standards are not met, effective January 22, 2018, residents will need an alternative form of ID accepted by the Transportation Security Administration to board a commercial flight. The House State Government Committee unanimously passed legislation that offers citizens a choice of forms of identification. This bill creates a tiered system for issuing proof of identity. The choice would be between the current form of driver's license or photo identification and a voluntary travel ID that works for air travel to admission to military installation and federal buildings. The legislation will now go to full house.

- Resolution 2017-15: PSAB support, protect and defend those boroughs of the commonwealth that own, operate and maintain not for profit community electric systems from any federal, state or county legislation leading to burdensome, unnecessary and expensive regulation; and be it further. This Resolution passed 363-2
- Resolution 2017-16: PSAB seek legislation amending Acts 39 and 166 of 2016 to prohibit the on-premises consumption sale of any alcoholic beverage within the limits of any dry municipality; and be if further Resolved, that this legislation include an amendment enabling municipalities the local option of placing a question on the ballot to prohibit sales for on-premises consumption. This Resolution passed 363-2

RECESS

A 40-minute recess was taken for dinner.

GUEST SPEAKER(S)

WARREN BLADEN , DIRECTOR OF EMERGENCY SERVICES

Mr. Bladen started out as a volunteer firefighter and then became a paramedic for about 14 years. His career path then changed. He studied law and spent some time in a private practice and then 10 years in the Adams County Public Defender's Office. Throughout his legal career he worked part time as a paramedic to maintain his certification. Mr. Bladen missed emergency services and doing 911 calls. He had always had an interest in the Directors job and in February of 2017 his interest became a reality when he took over the role as Director after John Eline retired. His roles includes overseeing the county's 911 center, keeping tabs on hazardous material risks and emergency management.

According to the Adams County Website the "Emergency Management is a legal responsibility and function of local, county, state and federal government. Over the past two decades, federal and state laws were amended to include natural, technological and man-made disaster mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery programs. National attention to emergency management began in the early 1950s with emphasis on civil defense, or enemy attack preparedness. The Emergency Management Services Code (35 Pa. C. S. Section 7101-7707) became law in 1978 and replaced the State Council of Civil Defense Act of 1951. Amendments to this Act in 1988 and 1989 further focused the role of emergency management personnel, organizations and responsibilities. In 1997, as the role of the emergency management agency grew, the Adams County Emergency Management Agency and Department of Communications changed its name to its current Adams County Department of Emergency Services. Provides Emergency Management Services for Adams County, both at county and municipal level; Operates county's 9-1-1 Emergency Communications Center; runs county's Hazardous Materials Planning and Response program, including carrying out aspects of PA ACT 165 and SARA Title III; coordinates training for county's emergency responders. The Mission of the Adams County Department of Emergency Services is to provide to the citizens and emergency responders of Adams County a comprehensive program of emergency management, including, but not limited to 9-1-1 and emergency dispatch services; emergency planning, training and resource management; hazardous materials planning, training and response. The Department works closely with appropriate municipal, county, state and federal agencies in order to carry out its mission."

Mr. Bladen as the new director oversees the operations of the Adams County 911 Center.
